ALLITERATION

"While I nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping..."

*The Ravens—
Edgar Allan Poe*

FORESHADOWING

"...but a singular sense of impending calamity, that should indeed have served me as a warning, drove me onward."

*The Time Machine—
H. G. Wells*

IRONY

"Trusting no man as his friend, he could not recognize his enemy when the latter actually appeared."

The Scarlet Letter—Nathaniel Hawthorne

METAPHOR

"The greater part of the untested men appeared quiet and absorbed. They were going to look at the war, the red animal—the blood-swollen god."

The Red Badge of Courage—Stephen Crane

ONOMATOPOEIA

"And ere three shrill notes the pipe uttered, You heard as if an army muttered; And the muttering grew to a grumbling; And the grumbling grew to a mighty rumbling; And out of the houses the rats came tumbling."

The Pied Piper of Hamelin—Robert Browning

PARADOX

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times."

*The Tale of Two Cities—
Charles Dickens*

PERSONIFICATION

"... the moon gazed on my midnight labours, while, with unrelaxed and breathless eagerness, I pursued nature to her hiding-places."

*Frankenstein, or the Modern Prometheus—
Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley*

SIMILE

"Let us go then, you and I, When the evening is spread out against the sky, Like a patient etherized upon a table."

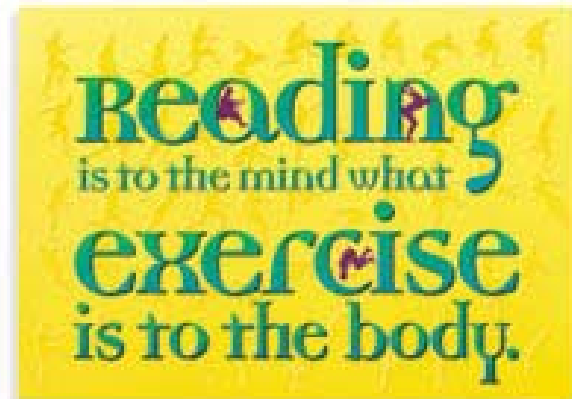

*The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock—
T. S. Eliot*
